

That Girl
Olly Murs

[Intro]

There's a girl but I let her get away
It's all my fault cause pride got in the way
And I'd be lying if I said I was ok
About that girl the one I let get away

[Verse 1]

I keep saying no
This can't be the way we're supposed to be
I keep saying no
There's gotta be a way to get you close to me
Now I know you gotta

[Chorus]

Speak up if you want somebody
Can't let 'em get away, oh no
You don't wanna end up sorry
The way that I'm feeling everyday
No no no no
There's no hope for the broken heart
No no no no
Theres no hope for the broken

[Verse 2]

There's a girl but I let her get away
Its my fault cause I said I needed space
I've been torturing myself night and day
About that girl, the one I let get away
I keep saying no
This can't be the way we're supposed to be
I keep saying no
There's gotta be a way to get y-
There's gotta be a way
To get you close to me
You gotta

[Chorus]

Speak up if you want somebody
Can't let 'em get away, oh no
You don't wanna end up sorry
The way that I'm feeling everyday
No no no no
There's no hope for the broken heart
No no no no
There's no hope for the broken
