

Country Bumpkin
Cal Smith

[Verse 1]

G He walked into the bar and parked his lanky frame upon a tall barstool
D With a long soft Southern drawl said
G "I'll just have a glass of anything that's cool"
G A bar room girl with hard and knowing eyes slowly looked him up and down
C And she thought "I wonder how on earth
D That country bumpkin found his way to town"

[Chorus]

She said "Hello, country bumpkin"

"How's the frost out on the pumpkin?"

"I've seen some sights but, man, you're somethin'"

"Where'd ya come from, country bumpkin?"

[Verse 2]

It was just a short year later in a bed of joy-filled tears yet death-like pain
Into this wondrous world of many wonders one more wonder came
That same woman's face was wrapped up

<sup>C</sup>
In a raptured look of love and tenderness

<sup>D</sup>
As she marveled at the soft and warm and cuddly boy-child feeding at her
breast

[Chorus]

<sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>
And she said "Hello, country bumpkin"

"Fresh as frost out on the pumpkin"

"I've seen some sights but, babe, you're somethin'"

<sup>G</sup>
"Mama loves her country bumpkin"

[Verse 3]

<sup>C</sup>
Forty years of hard work later in a simple, quiet and peaceful country
place

<sup>D</sup>
The heavy hand of time had not erased

<sup>G</sup>
The raptured wonder from the woman's face

<sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup>
She was lying on her deathbed knowing fully well her race was nearly run

<sup>D</sup>
But she softly smiled and looked into the sad eyes of her husband and her
son

[Chorus]

<sup>C</sup> <sup>D</sup>
And she said "So long, country bumpkin"

"The frost is gone now from on the pumpkin"

C D

"I've seen some sights and life's been somethin'"

G

"See you later, country bumpkin"

C

She said "So long, country bumpkin"

G

"The frost is gone now from on the pumpkin"

C D

"I've seen some sights and life's been somethin'"

G

"See you later, country bumpkin"
