

No More Words BERLIN

You're talking it all sounds fair

You promise your love how much you care

I'm still listening and still unsure

Your actions are lacking, nothing is clear

No more words

You're telling me you love me while you're looking away

No more words, no more words

And no more promises of love

Remember when the words were new

They carried a meaning, a feeling so true

I'm looking for a long romance

Not a picture of passion or one time chance

No more words

You're telling me you love me while you're looking away

No more words, no more words

And no more promises of love

Don't fool your self

Your empty passion won't satisfy me

I know, so don't pretend that you want me

You don't want me, no

No more words

You're telling me you love me while you're looking away

No more words, no more words

And no more promises of love

We make love, it's all the same

Your eyes show nothing no lover's flame

Don't promise we can work it out

You can leave right now if you're feeling doubt

No more words

You're telling me you love me while you're looking away

No more words, no more words

And no more promises of love

No more words

You're telling me you love me you're looking away

No more words and no more promises

No more words and no more promises

No more words

You're telling me you love me, you're looking away

No more words, no more words

And no more promises of love

No more words and no more promises

No more words and no more promises of love

No more words and no more promises

No more words and no more promises of love
