[Verse 1]

Am F C G
He left a card, a bar of soap and a
Am F
Scrubbing brush next to a note that said,
C G Am F
'Use these down to your bones'.
C G
And before I knew, I had shiny skin and it
Am F
Felt easy being clean like him I thought,
C G Am F
This one knows better than I do.

[Pre-Chorus]

Dm F G
A triangle try'n to squeeze through a circle.
Dm F
He tried to cut me so I'd fit.
G C
And doesn't that sound familiar?

[Chorus]

G
Doesn't that hit too close to home?
Am
Doesn't that make you shiver,
F
The way things could've gone?
C
And doesn't it feel peculiar
G
When ev'ry one wants a little more?

Am F
So that I do remember to never go that far,
C G
Could you leave me with a scar?

[Interlude]

Am F C G Am F C G
So the next one came with a bag of treats

[Verse 2]

Am F
She smelled like sugar and spoke like the C G Am F
sea and she told me, 'don't trust them trust me'.
C G
Then she pulled at my stitches one by one,
Am F
Looked at my insides clicking her tounge and said
C G Am F
'This will all have to come undone'.

[Pre-Chorus]

Dm F G
A triangle try'n to squeeze through a circle.
Dm F
She tried to blunt me so I'd fit.
G C
And doesn't that sound familiar?

[Chorus]

G
Doesn't that hit too close to home?
Am
Doesn't that make you shiver,
F
The way things could've gone?
C
And doesn't it feel peculiar
G
When ev'ry one wants a little more?

Am F
So that I do remember to never go that far,
Dm

[Verse 3]

F C G7 Dm F G C G
I think I realised just in time, although my old self was hard to find
Am F
You can bathe me in your finest wine but I'll never give you mine.
C G
Cause I'm a little bit tired of fearing that I'll be the bad fruit that nobody buys.
Am F
Tell me, did you think we'd all dream the same?
C
And doesn't that sound familiar?

[Chorus]

G
Doesn't that hit too close to home?
Am
Doesn't that make you shiver,
F
The way things could've gone?
C
And doesn't it feel peculiar
G
When ev'ry one wants a little more?
Am F
So that I do remember to never go that far,
C
Could you leave me with a scar?

[Outro]

Could you leave me with a scar?
