Bm G
 I wanna tell you about my mountain home,
A Bm
 Where all the lady's names are Joan,
Bm G
 when her husband works back late at night,
A
 hopes are up for trouser's down,
Bm
 with the hostess on the business flight.
G
 Taxi in her Mercedes drive,
A Bm
 I hope that driver's coming out alive,
Bm
 the garden it is dorseted,
G
 that lady she's so corseted,
A Bm
 she'd got fifteen ways to lead that boy astray.
Bm
 Thinks he's one and only,
G
 but that lovely she's so lonely,
A
 she pumps him full of breakfast,
Bm
 and she sends on his way.

Bm
 What a sing song dance,
A

what a performance,

G

what a cheap tent show,

F#

oh no no no no no,

A Bm

then the boys light up,

G

then the boys light up,

A

then the boys light up,

Bm

then the boys light up, light up, light up

Buddy

Bm-G-A

Bm G

Silently she opens the drawer

A

Mama's little helper,

Bm

is coming out for more,

Bm G

Strategically positioned for the midday show,

A

The back is arched, those lips are parched,

Bm

repeated blow by blow,

Bm G

Later at the party where all the MP's rave,

A

About the hummers she been given,

Bm

and the money that they've saved,

Bm

To her it is skin lotion,

G

him promotion too,

A

Bm

that flat in surfers paradise with the ocean view.

Bm

What a sing song dance,

A

what a performance,

G

what a cheap tent show,

F#

oh no no no no no,

A Bm

then the boys light up,

G

then the boys light up,

A

then the boys light up,

Bm

then the boys light up, light up, light up

A Bm

then the boys light up,

G

then the boys light up,

A

then the boys light up,

Bm

then the boys light up, light up, light up
