If The Devil Danced (In Empty Pockets)
Joe Diffie

NOTE: chord shapes on the last page

[Intro]

G C D7 G

[Verse 1]

```
   C7                                              G
Diablo motors had a hell of a sale, downtown yesterday,
    C7                                A7                     D
Word got around, no money down, take years and years to pay.
      C7                                                  G
When I got there the lot was bare, but the salesman said hold on.
      C7          C#dim      G/D    B7/D#  E  A7    D7            G
For a little cash, I gotta two-tone Nash     out behind the barn.
```

[Chorus]

```
G                                    A7
If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine.
      D                                    G6          G#dim      Am
With a nine foot grand, a ten piece band and a twelve girl chorus line.
D        G                                        A
I'd raise some loot in a three piece suit, give 'em one dance for a dime,
   G/B C        A/C#        G/D B/D# E7  A             D7         G
If the Devil Danced in empty  pockets, he'd have a ball in mine.
```

[Verse 2]

```
     C7                                                  G
Well he said friend it ain't the end let's see what I can do.
       C7                        A7                D
If you own a home, I've got a loan, tailor made for you.
      C7                                                  G
Then above the racket a voice in my jacket said, "I'll tote the note."
     C7             C#dim       G/D B7/D# E         A7         D7        G
The devil made me do it, talked me  in    to it, and that was all she wrote.
```

[Chorus]

```
G                                    A7
If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine.
      D                                    G6          G#dim      Am
With a nine foot grand, a ten piece band and a twelve girl chorus line.
D        G                                        A
I'd raise some loot in a three piece suit, give 'em one dance for a dime,
   G/B C        A/C#        G/D B/D# E7  A             D7         G
If the Devil Danced in empty  pockets, he'd have a ball in mine.
```

[Bridge]

Em   B7   Em
They say debt is a bottomless pit where the devil likes to play.

                                                          A7   D
I'd sell my soul to get out of this hole, but there'd be hell to pay.

[Instrumental]

G   A7 D7 G D7 G A7 C   G E7 A7 D7 G

[Chorus]

G   A7
If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine.
        D   G6   G#dim   Am
With a nine foot grand, a ten piece band and a twelve girl chorus line.
D   G   A
I'd raise some loot in a three piece suit, give 'em one dance for a dime,
   G/B C   A/C#   G/D B/D# E7 A   D7   G
If the Devil Danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine.

Chord shapes

```
C7: 032310      A7: x02020      G/D: 320033    C#dim: 002323
D7: xx0212    A/C#: 043330    B7/D#: 021202      G/B: x20003
Em: 022000      B7: 021202    G#dim: xx0101       G6: 3x0000
```