

Hillbilly Rock
Marty Stuart

[Intro]

A#

A#

It comes from Mississippi, and down in Alabam'

A#

Creepin' like a fever all across the land

A#

From deep in the Delta on the Louisiana shore

A#

The people got to have it, they want to hear some more

D#

A#

It's the hillbilly rock, beat it with a drum

A#

Playin' them guitars like shootin from a gun

A#

Keepin' up the rhythm, steady as a clock

F

A#

Doin' a little thing called the hillbilly rock

A#

Some say it came from Memphis down in Tennessee

Or it drifted in from Georgia about 1953

A#

Just as long as it's greasy, as long as it's fast

A#

As long as it's pumpin' honey, it's gonna last

A#      D#                      A#
It's the hillbilly rock, beat it with a drum
A#
Playin' them guitars like shootin' from a gun
A#
Keepin' up the rhythm, steady as a clock
F                                  A#
Doin' a little thing called the hillbilly rock

A#
Way back in old Kentucky where the bluegrass grows
Through the Carolinas on them dirt red roads
A#
Burnin' like a fire runnin' wild in the woods
A#
From Arkansas to Texas, it sounds so good
D#                                  A#
It's the hillbilly rock, beat it with a drum
A#
Playin' them guitars like shootin' from a gun
A#
Keepin' up the rhythm, steady as a clock
D#                                  A#
Doin' a little thing called the hillbilly rock

A#
So when the heat starts to risin' and you gotta blow some steam
A#
Take a ride down the river, you'll see just what I mean

A#

The juke joint's jumpin', when that cat goes on

A#

The whole place is shakin', there's a something goin' on

D#

It's the hillbilly rock, beat it with a drum

A#

Playin' them guitars like shootin from a gun

A#

Keepin' up the rhythm, steady as a clock

Doin' a little thing called the hillbilly rock
