

Meet Me In the Morning
Bob Dylan

This is a Blues in E

Intro:

B     A     E
1234 1234 1234 1234

Verse 1:

E
Meet me in the morning
A                    E
    56th and Wabasha
A
Meet me in the morning
                  E
56th and Wabasha
          B
Honey, we could be in Kansas
A                                    E
By time the snow begins to thaw

Verse 2:

E
They say the darkest hour
A                                    E
Is right before the dawn
          A
They say the darkest hour
                                  E
Is right before the dawn
B
But you wouldn't know it by me
A    E
Every day's been darkness since you been gone

Verse 3:

E

Little rooster crowin'

A

E

There must be something on his mind

A

Little rooster crowin'

E

There must be something on his mind

B

Well, I feel just like that rooster

A

E

Honey, ya treat me so unkind

Verse 4:

E

The bird are flyin' low babe

A

E

Honey I feel so exposed

A

Well, the birds are flyin' low babe

E

Honey I feel so exposed

B

Well now I ain't got any matches

A

E

And the station doors are closed

Verse 5:

E

Well, I struggled through barbed wire

A

E

Felt the hail fall from above

A

Well, I struggled through barbed wire

E

Felt the hail fall from above

B

Well, you know I even outran the hound dogs

A

E

Honey, you know I've earned your love

Verse 6:

E

Look at the sun

A

E

Sinkin' like a ship

A

Look at the sun

E

Sinkin' like a ship

B

Ain't that just like my heart, babe

A

E

When you kissed my lips?