A All of your affection is gone baby and your love is growing cold
D
A I said, all of your affection is gone baby and your love is growing cold
E
Hey and I've got a new story to tell you this evening, baby
D A D A E
One that ain't never been told

A
I went to work the other day
A
But I thought that I'd double back
A
And that car I saw sitting in front of my door
A7
Looked like a brand new, a brand new Cadillac
D A
Yes, I ain't got none now, baby, I think you've been cheating on me
E D A
I believe to my soul baby, you've given me some outside help
D A E
That I don't think I really need

The iceman came by this morning
And you know, he didn't leave no ice
Postman came by later baby
And he didn't even ring twice

Yes, I think you've been cheating on me, I think you're running out on me
I believe to my soul baby that you've given me some outside help
That I don't think I really need

JAM on verse with quick IV, when done [BB double tap] for end

Now, I want you to tell the iceman

A

The next time he'd better leave some ice

A

And I want you to tell the postman

A7

He'd better ring more than twice

A

And when I come home from work in the morning

A

Better still be some groceries on the shelf

A

And I want you to tell that slick insurance man

A7

That he'd better write some insurance on his self

A

Yes, I think you've been cheating on me, I think you're running out on me

A

I believe to my soul baby, that you've given me some help, some help
