~ADDITIONAL LEAD RIFF~

This is the lead guitar lick that is played occasionally throughout the song (marked by [*]). It just consists of keeping the forefinger on the 11th fret of the B and high E string while pulling off with either the middle or ring finger and the pinky. Since it requires 2 guitars, I did not include it in my main work (although the ending little lick in the Intro Riff is also a second guitar, but I decided to put that in as it's manageable to play with everything else), but if anyone is interested, here's the tabs! :)
