

DIZZY MISS LIZZIE

BEATLES

As you all know, the guitar riff is doubled the whole song through. I have tabbed both tracks just when any differing nuances were produced. Jonn can be seen playing DIZZY live on his Rickenbacker at the Shea Stadium, surely he played it on guitar at other venues too, but on the recording he had played Hammond organ instead. In the verses George plays almost in unison with the bass line, as well live as on the recording, but the last uses the guitar riff more profusely.
